

Welcome to the Vance minute. I'm Joe B. Wiles with the Public Affairs Office...

Team Vance kicked off the 2015 Air Force Assistance Fund campaign with a burrito breakfast at the Community Chapel Activity Center February 2nd.

Members of the 33rd Flying Training Squadron served up breakfast burritos while the AFAF campaign leaders served up information on the six-week campaign.

Contributions to AFAF go to help active duty Airmen and the surviving spouses of active duty and retired Airmen.

Megan Schmid, an attorney in the Vance Legal Office, reaffirmed her oath of commission during her promotion ceremony February 2nd.

And the officer administering the oath was her husband, Major Ryan Schmid, an instructor pilot with the 3rd Flying Training Squadron.

To complete the family affair, the Schmid's three daughters and Megan's parents joined in to pin on her new rank of major, a golden oak leaf.

And that's your Vance Minute... have a great Air Force day.
